

Geo Bay Cool Water Classic – Entry Refund Policy

Participant Cancellation

Option 1:

A participant can choose to defer their entry into the following year's event up to 1 week prior to the event date.

Option 2:

A participant can cancel their entry in the lead up to the event and request a refund of their entry according to the following cut off period and refund amounts:

Time before Event	Refund Amount
Greater than 2 months	50%
1 month – 2 week	25%
2 week	No refund

Option 3:

A participant can cancel their entry into the event with a 50% refund at any time with the provision of a certified medical certificate. The injury must be relating to a physical injury that limits their participation in the event and not an underlying or existing medical condition.

Conditions:

All notices to defer or withdraw must be made in writing to Geo Bay Swim. Geo Bay Swim has the right to make decision on a case by case basis and all decisions are final.

Event Cancellation

In the event of the swim being cancelled on the day or day prior of the event the following options will be offered:

Option 1:

Deferral of the event onto the following day. The swimming portion of the event will be held as per normal. A shortened or altered version of the after party will be held. No refund will be offered to any swimmer that takes part in the swim. Any swimmer that does not take part in the deferred swim will be offered an entry into the following years event.

Option 2:

Total cancellation of the event. All swimmers will be offered a deferred entry into the following year's event.
